

October 21, 2007

A. Nugent

Funeral services for Alem Lee "A.L." Nugent, "Paw Paw", 79, were held at 10:00 a.m. Saturday, October 6, at Pentecostal Tabernacle. A graveside service was held at 3:00 p.m. in Le Blue Cemetery in Fenton, Louisiana.

He was born November 6, 1927, the son of Elder and Elizabeth Nugent in Liberty, Texas. A.L. liked to farm, garden, ride horses, broncos and bulls. He loved playing with the little ones, not just his grandchildren or his two cowboys, that came to the house. His family always came first and made sure they were taken care of. He was a great story teller, especially ghost stories. A.L. also enjoyed singing country gospel music.

Mr. Nugent passed away on Thursday, October 4, 2007. His parents; three brothers, J.L., Dixie and Willie; three sisters, Mandy, Selma and Edna; and stepchildren, Janice and Gary, preceded him in death.

Survivors include his loving wife, Terry Ann Nugent; stepdaughters, Sandra Noble and husband, Bob, Brenda Welch and LeeAnn Bellis; stepsons, James Kyzer and wife, Glenda, and Darris Knapp; brother, W.T. Nugent; fifteen grandchildren; eighteen great-grandchildren; and special friend, John Roberts.

Condolences may be made online at www.sterlingfuneralhome.com.

Arrangements have been entrusted to Sterling Funeral Home, Dayton.