

R.J. "OLD PAINT"
NUNLEY

Mr. R.J. "Old Paint" Nunley, age 76 of Pennington, passed away Saturday, July 20, 2002 in the East Texas Medical Center-Crockett. Mr. Nunley was born April 5, 1926 in Texarkana, Arkansas and had been living in Pennington for the past 20 years. Mr. Nunley was a veteran of the U.S. Army Air Corps having served during World War II. Mr. Nunley was a retired painter and a member of the Zion Hill Baptist Church.

Survivors include his wife Patronilla "Pat" Nunley, of Pennington; children Joyce and Tony Ficco, of Golden, Colo, Johnnie Sue and John Archer, of Diboll, Toni and Rick Heinrich, of Flat Prairie, Cindy and Bruce Reilly, of Houston, Jeff and Debbie Nunley, of Lufkin, Randy Joe and Janice Nunley, of Pennington; 16 grandchildren; 17 great-grandchildren; sister Lucille Turner, of Austin; brothers-in-law Joe Lopo and wife Mary, of Eastlake, Colo., Frank Lopo and wife Judy, of Loveland, Colo.; special Canine-Nacho and numerous cats; numerous nieces, nephews, and other relatives.

Preceded in death by his daughter Janice Faye Reno; grandson Cory Nunley; great grandson Little Paul Moody; brother Morris "Buck" Halley; brother-in-law Charles Turner.

Funeral services for Mr. R.J. "Old Paint" Nunley were held Tuesday, July 23, at 11:00 a.m. in the Callaway-Allee Memorial Chapel with the Rev. Jim Turner and the Rev. Mike Tinsdale officiating. Interment followed in the Flat Prairie Cemetery.

Callaway-Allee Funeral Home

Flat Prairie