

Trinity
Standard
11-30-06

CHARLES OGDEN

Charles Lee Ogden

TRINITY - Funeral services for Charles Lee Ogden, 68, were held at 2 p.m. Monday, Nov. 27, 2006, at the Waller-Thornton Funeral Home in Trinity with the Rev. Steve Worley officiating.

Burial followed in People's Cemetery.

Mr. Ogden died Tuesday, Nov. 21, in Evansville, Ind.

Born May 24, 1938, he was self-employed and a widely known musician. He was preceded in death by six brothers, Bert Riley, Curtis, Billy Ray, Ronald Jay, Bordial and Frank; and two sisters, Vida and Annie.

Survivors include his companion, Wilma Fleming; a son and daughter-in-law, Todd and Jessica Ogden; a brother, Henry Birdell Ogden; six sisters, Fanny Pearl Holden, Ruby Jewell Lofton, Betty Ruth Hance, Brenda Kelso, Ella Smelley and Lourena Kitchens; four grandchildren, Corey, Nicolas, Zachary and Nadia; special friends, Carl and Pam Fleming, Kathleen Baxter, Angela Matthews, Ryan Fleming and Emma Matthews; and a number of nieces, nephews and friends.

Waller Funeral Home of Trinity directed the arrangements.