

Wilma Lee Ogletree

LIVINGSTON – Wilma Lee Ogletree, 90, of Livingston died on Sunday, June 3, 2007, at her residence in Livingston.

Funeral services were held Tuesday, June 5, at Central Baptist Church, with Bro. Barry Jeffries officiating. Burial followed in Forest Hill Cemetery.

Mrs. Ogletree was born Dec. 27, 1916 in Mooringsport, La., the daughter of Isham and Artie Walker Gray. Mrs. Ogletree was a Sunday school teacher at Central Baptist Church for many years. She was a founding member of the Livingston Art League and a benefactor of Memorial Medical Center – Livingston.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Ben Ogletree, whom she married at her parents' home in Soda on Oct. 19, 1935; her parents; brother, L.L. Gray Jr. and grandson, Barry Gray Ogletree Jr.

Survivors include her sons and daughters-in-law, Ben R. and Jan Ogletree Jr. of Livingston, Barry and Karen Ogletree of Lufkin, Greg and Kathy Ogletree of Livingston and Kelton and Louisia Ogletree of Livingston; grandsons and wives, Ben R. and Tammi Ogletree III, Clark and Yana Ogletree, Will Ogletree, Jonathan Ogletree and Daniel Villarreal; granddaughters and husbands, Londa and John Haynes, Lee Parker, Alex and Robert Belt, Jennifer and Grady Rowe, Lauren and Tres Harrison, Samantha Ogletree and Mary Parker and 22 great-grandchildren.

Pallbearers were Ben R. Ogletree III, Clark Ogletree, John Haynes, Will Ogletree, Robert Belt, Grady Rowe, Jonathan Ogletree, Tres Harrison and Daniel Villarreal.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the Central Baptist Church Building Fund. Cochran Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.