

Charles Henry Oliver

TRINITY – Graveside services for Charles Henry Oliver, 61, were held at 10 a.m. Wednesday, June 27, 2007, in the Pine Grove Cemetery in Diboll with Pastor A.J. Havard officiating.

Mr. Oliver died Sunday, June 24.

He was born Oct. 20, 1945. He joined the U.S. Air Force in 1963 during the Vietnam War and received an honorable discharge in 1967.

Mr. Oliver was preceded in death by his parents, Steven Oliver and Madeline Luke; a daughter-in-law, Jennifer Davis Renfro; and a grandson, Nathan “Bud” Renfro.

Survivors include his wife of over 39 years, Mary Laverne Havard of Trinity; four sons and their spouses, Donald Ray and Donna Renfro of Lufkin, Nathan Duane Renfro of Trinity, Charles Stevens and Lisa Oliver of Goodrich and Bryan Keith and Paula Oliver of Timpson; two brothers and their spouses, Edward and Peggy Oliver and Bobby and Imogene Oliver, all of Avenger; four sisters and their spouses, Ann Hutcherson of Trinity, Elaine and Lenvel Mosley of Onalaska, Josephine and Archie Renfro of Etoile and Polly and Paul O’Leary of Wiggins, Colo.; 17 grandchildren; seven great-grandchildren; numerous nieces, nephews and friends; and a very special friend, Ms. Ruby Gilcrease.

Pallbearers included Keith Oliver, Steven Oliver, Travis Oliver, Paul Oliver, E.J. Browne, Andrew Browne, Randy Browne, Scott Renfro and Scooby Lanpier.

Honorary pallbearers were nephews.

Waller-Thornton Funeral Home of Trinity directed the arrangements.