6-8 p.m. on Wednesday, May 5, at the Memorial Oaks Funeral Home in Houston.

Mr. Oppermann died Friday, April 30, following a lengthy illness.

He was the owner of the Aachen Oppermann Brick Restoration Co. and had been a realtor for 35 years as owner of Oppermann Realty Co. Prior to his profession in the real estate business, he served as a lieutenant in the U.S. Army Air Force during World War II, stationed in Italy.

Mr. Oppermann was a member of the Masonic Lodge for 50 years, and was a member of the Arabia Shrine Temple, Legion of Honor and Holland Lodge. He was a past member of the Royal Order of Jesters.

Known to his friends as "Charlie," he spent much of his leisure time at his home on Lake Livingston near Trinity, where he enjoyed fishing, boating and being out in nature.

Survivors include his wife of 56 years, Barbara Oppermann; two sons and a daughter-in-law, Karl and Mary Oppermann and Chuck Oppermann; a daughter and son-in-law, Connie and Bill Fogel; seven grandchildren, Sigrid Marthincissen Ramstad, Colleen Villanueva, Stephanie Christian, Christopher Power, Dylan Grayson, Brandon Oppermann and Carly Oppermann; and eight great-grandchildren, Steven, Eric, Cameron, Chris, Cindy, Nathaniel, Olivia and Helena.

Pallbearers will include Brandon

Oppermann, Dylan Grayson, James Meritt and David Ellison.

In lieu of flowers, the family has asked that contributions be made in Oppermann's memory to VITAS Hospice Care, 4828 Loop Central Dr., Ste. #890, Houston, Texas 77081 (713-663-7777).

Memorial Oaks Funeral Home of Houston directed the arrangements.
