

Obituaries

Carman Osborn

TRINITY -- Services Carman Osborn, 61, of Willis were held at 11 a.m. Wednesday, March 28, 2001, in the Glendale Baptist Church with the Rev. Barbara Campbell officiating.

Burial followed in the Glendale Cemetery.

Mr. Osborn died March 26 in Conroe.

He was born Jan. 20, 1940 in Trinity and served in the U.S. Navy for eight years, earning the rank of 2nd class petty officer.

Survivors include four sons and three daughters-in-law, Steven and Theresa Osborn of New Waverly, Michael and Pam White of Houston, Brien and Monica White of Houston and Chris Smith of Huntsville; two daughters and a son-in-law, Gail and Shayne Cammack of Athens and Cheri Osborn of Huntsville; three brothers and their spouses, Joe Osborn of Glendale, John and Beverly Osborn of Cleveland and Robert and Jan Osborn of Huntsville; two sisters and brothers-in-law, Becky and Tony Pyle of Kemah and Pat and Woodrow Coleman of Glendale; 18 grandchildren; and 10 nieces, nephews and cousins.

Pallbearers included Ray Griffin, Woodrow Coleman, Josh Pyle, Ron Creech and his sons.

Waller-Thornton Funeral Home of Trinity directed the arrangements.