

Edna Paradice

VIDOR – Edna Paradice, 90, of Vidor died Saturday, March 3, 2007, in Vidor.

She was a native of Leggett, with descendants including the Holders, Rices, Griffins and Lairds, who have lived in Polk County for generations. She had been a resident of Vidor for 41 years. As a teacher, she taught in Livingston, Spurger, Mauriceville and Nederland before retiring from Vidor ISD. She was a member of the First United Methodist Church in Vidor.

Funeral services were held Tuesday, March 6, in Memorial Funeral Home in Vidor, with burial following in Restlawn Cemetery in Vidor.

Survivors include her daughter, Belle Eanes and her husband Ed of Vidor; son, Sam Paradice of Vidor; sister, Norine Gotcher of Mission and brother, Edward Holder of Leggett. She was preceded in death by her husband, Ed Paradice; her parents, Ed and Bertice Holder and brother, Clarence Holder.

Memorials may be made to the Friends of Vidor Public Library or the First United Methodist Church of Vidor.