LILLIE MAE PARKER

Mrs. Lillie Mae Parker, age 91, of Crockett, passed away Saturday, Sept. 2, 2000 in the Whitehall Nursing Center. Mrs. Parker was born Nov. 25, 1908 in Rice. She graduated from Crockett High School and had been a lifetime resident of Crockett.

Mrs. Parker was a member of the First Baptist Church. One of her favorite hobbies was needlework and she gladly shared the knitted or crocheted items that she created with friends and relatives. She also enjoyed playing bridge and forty-two and was a superb player at both.

Mrs. Parker was preceded in death by husband Lonzie, who died in 1990, they had celebrated 64 years of marriage before his death. The couple owned and operated a store on the square in Crockett for many years. During their retirement years, Mr. and Mrs. Parker recalled fond memories of numerous Crockett citizens and special friends coming by the shop to visit and to drink a cup of coffee while sharing some of their hunting and fishing experiences.

Survivors include son L.A. Parker and wife Barbara of Fort Worth; grandson Keith Parker of Crockett, David Parker and wife Stacey of Fort Worth; great-grandchildren Katie, Andy, Jameson and Amanda; sister-in-law Dorothy DuPree Parker of Austin; several nieces and nephews including one niece in Crockett Janie Parker Ivins; special friends Betty Brannen, Marlice Clayton, Patsy Mize and Bonnie Gayle.

Pallbearers for Mrs. Parker were Keith Parker, David Parker, Andy Parker, George Worsham, John Henry Worsham and Gary Ivins.

Funeral services for Mrs. Parker were held Wednesday, Sept. 6 at 2 p.m. in the First Baptist Church with the Rev. David Valentine officiating. Interment followed in the Evergreen Memorial Park.

Should friends desire to make a memorial contribution, the family suggests that donations be made to the American Heart Association or the Building Fund at the First Baptist Church of Crockett.
