Ernestine "Cotton" Price

TRINITY -- Graveside funeral services for Ernestine "Cotton" Price, 68, of Trinity were held at 2 p.m. Wednesday, Sept. 18, 2002, in the Cedar Grove Cemetery in Trinity with his nephew, Monty Price, officiating.

Mr. Price died Tuesday, Sept. 17, at his residence.

Born May 18, 1934, in Madison County, he was the son of Perry and Essie Hosier Price. He had resided in Trinity for 66 years, graduating from Trinity High School in 1951. Following his high school graduation, Mr. Price enlisted in the U.S. Air Force, returning to Trinity in 1956.

He earned a degree in business in 1960 and together with his wife, Jackie, operated an insurance agency and nursery for many years. Following natural disasters such as hurricanes, tornadoes and hail storms, Mr. Price served as an insurance adjuster helping to settle damage claims in the area.

Mr. Price was preceded in death by his parents and three brothers, Leon, J.V. and Jerald Price.

Survivors include two sons and a daughter-in-law, Kent Price of Trinity and Brent and Rhonda Price of Crockett; a daughter and son-in-law, Gay and Scott Barousse of Spring; two brothers and sisters-in-law, Dean and Johnny Price of Trinity and Perry and Carol Price of Baytown; two sisters and a brother-in-law, Jimmy Davis of Baytown and Marjorie and Albert Mangum of Trinity; three grandchildren, Kent Allen Price of Trinity, Brent Price Jr. and Emily Price of Crockett; a sister-in-law, June Price of Trinity; and a number of nieces and nephews.

Waller-Thornton Funeral Home of Trinity directed the arrangements.
