

Jean Peacock

LIVINGSTON – Graveside services for Jean Peacock, 81, were held Sunday, May 20, 2007, at Leesburg Cemetery in Leesburg, Miss., with Bro. Ed Peacock officiating.

Mrs. Peacock died Wednesday, May 16, in Hermann Northwest Hospital in Houston, as the result of injuries sustained in an automobile accident Feb. 3 in Livingston. She had been transported by Life Flight to Houston.

She was born May 17, 1925 in Leesburg, Miss., the daughter of Houston and Hassie Bates, both of whom preceded her in death. She and her husband Jack were the owners of a grocery store and gas station in Waldo, Ark.

Survivors include her husband, Jack D. Peacock of Onalaska; sisters, Penny Anders and Irene Jones; brothers, Hugh D. Bates and Merle Bates and numerous nieces and nephews. Cochran Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.