

Polk Co.

1-27-2008

Wayne Henry Pergande

ONALASKA -- Funeral services for Wayne Henry Pergande, 79, will be held at 2 p.m. Saturday, Jan. 26, 2008, in the First United Methodist Church of Onalaska, with the Rev. Paul G. Whitlatch and the Rev. Pam Howard officiating. Burial will follow in Magnolia Cemetery, Onalaska.

Mr. Pergande died Monday, Jan. 21, in Hospice in the Pines in Lufkin.

He was born May 28, 1928 in Algona, Iowa, the son of Henry and Florence Lottman Pergande, both of whom preceded him in death. Mr. Pergande was a member of the Promise Keepers, the Caring Committee, Intercessory Prayer Group and the East Texas Emmaus Community for 13 years.

Survivors include his wife of 31 years, Shirley Pergande of Livingston; daughter, Barbara Folsom of Gun Barrel City; daughters and sons-in-law, Phylis and David Davidson of Conroe, Connie and George Allison of Goodyear, Ariz. and Renee and Roy Stanley of Crossett, Ark.; sons and daughters-in-law, Gene and Catherine Pergande of Livingston, Joe Pergande of Fairfield, Calif., Michael and Bonnie Holt of Livingston and Jason and Michelle Holt of Diboll; brother and sister-in-law, Robert and Lorraine Pergande of Winterhaven, Fla.; 19 grandchildren; 17 great-grandchildren and numerous other relatives and friends and extended family members in Iowa.

Pallbearers will be Gene Pergande, Jonathon Holt, Joshua Holt, John Mattes, Bobby Perkins, Richard Reeves and Bob Neely. Honorary pallbearers will be Shane Howett, Tony Taylor and Ray Howard.

Cochran Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.