Mattie Lue Pillows

GROVETON - Services for Mattie Lue Pillows, 70, of Groveton were held at 10 a.m. Friday, July 8, 2005, in the Groveton Funeral Home Chapel.

Burial followed in the Bennett Cemetery.

Mrs. Pillows died Tuesday, July 5, following a long battle with cancer.

Born Sept. 29, 1934, she was the daughter of J.W. and Liddie Bell Innerarity. She was married to Lewis Aubrey Pillows on Aug. 15, 1987 and the couple moved to Groveton following their retirements.

She had been a member of the Groveton Church of Christ for 17 years.

Mrs. Pillows spent 50 years teaching children about the Bible, manners and good behavior. Driven by a desire to reach more children, she, along with puppet helper "Prissy Galore," began in the 1970s training others how to teach these lessons to young children.

Survivors include her husband; two daughters and a son-in-law, Gaye Lynn and Ray Hammond and Vicki Elaine Carbo; a step-daughter, Kimberly Trotman; two step-sons and a spouse, Kerry Trotman and Gary and Becky Pillows.

Innerarity Jr.; a grandson and his spouse, John C. and Susan Carbo; a step-granddaughter, Elizabeth Pillows; a great-grandson, Jack Austin Carbo; and a number of other relatives and friends.

Groveton Funeral Home directed the arrangements.
