

MERREL LEE PLATT

Mrs. Merrel Lee Platt, age 79, went to be with the Lord Sunday, October 5, 2003. Mrs. Platt lived in Baytown from 1955-2000, spending the last three years in Houston, where she passed away at an area Hospital.

Mrs. Platt was born March 27, 1924 in Needville. Mrs. Platt graduated from Damon High School and was valedictorian of her class. Mrs. Platt went on to graduate from the Memorial Hospital School of Nursing, and she received a Bachelors degree in Psychology from the University of Houston. Mrs. Platt was a registered nurse for Humble Oil Refinery and later taught nursing at Lee College.

Mrs. Platt was a member of the First Baptist Church of Baytown, and loved singing in the Choir. Mrs. Platt was a member of the U.S. Cadet Nurse Corps. Mrs. Platt was also member of the Exxon Annuitants, as well as a member of Memorial Hospital School of Nursing Alumni, and a University of Houston Alumni.

Survivors include her sons Jack Platt and wife Sydney, of Houston, Joe Platt and wife Kim, of Baytown; grandchildren Craig Platt, Brittany Platt, Eric Platt and Madison Platt; sisters Emogene Winebrenner, of Damon, Effie Mae Vogler, of Rosenberg, Isabelle Watson, of Denver, Colo.

Preceded in death by her husband of 42 years Marshall M. Platt; two brothers Joseph Marion Williams and Claude

Jennings Williams.

Funeral services for Mrs. Merrel Lee Platt will be held Friday, October 10, at 11:00 a.m. at Navarre Funeral Home with the Rev. Bill Ingram officiating.

Interment will be Saturday, October 11, at 2:00 p.m. at Center Hill Cemetery in Lovelady.

Honorary Pallbearers will be Mike Williams, Richard Tunstall, Ben Winebrenner, Mark Vogler, Gene Williams and Charles Jesse Waller, Jr.

Navarre Funeral Home

205388

Center Hill