

#33

HCC 11/20/2005

EVELYN SMITH
(MEMAW) POLLARD

Mrs. Evelyn Smith (McMaw) Pollard, age 83 of Round Rock, formerly of the Tennessee Community and Houston, passed away Wednesday, November 16, 2005 in Round Rock. Mrs. Pollard was born August 18, 1922 in Houston County to David Millard and Vallie Parrish Smith.

Mrs. Pollard was an active member of the Tennessee Community United Methodist Church, serving as Music Director for many years and also a member of the Order of Eastern Star for most of her adult life and served as Worthy Matron of the East Houston and Tenaha Chapters of the O.E.S.

While raising three children in Houston, she worked as a PBX operator for C. Jim Stewart and Stevenson and Allied Fence Company, and also worked as an emergency room admittance clerk for Ben Taub

Hospital before retiring to Hickory Hill in the Tennessee Community in Shelby County.

Survivors include her children Dan and Diane Pollard, of Wimberly, Carole Sears, of the Tennessee Community, and Diane and Paul Brault, of Round Rock; seven grandchildren; eight great-grandchildren; sister Margie Deming, of Houston; and numerous nieces, nephews who knew her as "Aunt Curt."

Preceded in death by her parents David Millard and Vallie Parrish Smith; husband Curtis Paul Pollard; four sisters; three brothers; and son-in-law Warren Addison Sears.

A Memorial Service was held Saturday, November 19, at 10:00 a.m. in the Mangum Chapel in Center with Brother Billy Freeman officiating.

In lieu of flowers, the family would like to request that donations be made to Vista Care Hospice of Austin at 7800 Shoal Creek Blvd., Suite 130 W., Austin, TX. 78757.