Johnnie Mae Killingsworth Price

TRINITY -- Services for Johnnie Mae Killingsworth Price, 81, of Trinity were held at 4 p.m. Saturday, April 10, 2004, in the Trinity Funeral Home Chapel of the Chimes with the Rev. Mike Loftin and the Rev. Precious Gibson officiating.

Burial followed in the Cedar Grove Cemetery in Trinity.

Mrs. Price died Wednesday, April 7, at the Methodist Hospital in Houston.

She was born March 1, 1923, in Riverside, the daughter of the late John E. and Lucy Skains Killingsworth of Trinity. She was a business woman for most of her life, working with her husband of 62 years, former Trinity County Commissioner Dean Price. They owned and operated the 7-11 store in Trinity for over 20 years and then White Rock City Marina for more than 20 years.

She was preceded in death by a son, former 258th District Attorney Joe Price of Trinity; and by one sister, Murl Walker of Trinity.

Survivors include her husband; a daughter and son-in-law, Judy and Bill Burton of Trinity; a sister, Virginia Hajovsky; four grandchildren and their spouses, Aenea Marburger of Kyle, Julie and Russell Merchant of Trinity, Jodi and Lance Brownlee of Arlington and Cealee and Clint Bullock of Shepherd; and four great-grandchildren, Marshall

Marburger, Jenna Marburger, Price Brownlee and Madelynn Brownlee.

Pallbearers included Joseph Colvin, James Dixon, Norris Wynum, Glen Waldrop and Brent Phillips.

Honorary pallbearers were Charlie Elliott, J.C. Chandler, Lloyd Hargrove, Troy Saldana, Charles Duff, Sylvester Jackson and Walt Perkins.

Trinity Funeral Home directed the arrangements.
