

H 8

Grapeland
messenger
Sept 9, 1999

Services Wednesday In Houston For Evalyn Pritchett

Funeral services for Evalyn McDougal Pritchett of Rosenberg were held Wednesday morning, September 8, at the First Baptist Church in Rosenberg. Burial was at 3:30 p.m. that afternoon in Forest Park Lawndale, Houston, under the direction of Garmany & Carden Funeral Directors, Inc.

Mrs. Pritchett was born October 6, 1907, in Grapeland to John Ilai and Letia (Walling) Bean. She died Friday, September 3, 1999, in Richmond. She loved her Lord and her church, West 14th Baptist, where she was a charter member. Along with her husband, Bob McDougal she owned and operated Bob McDougal Sewing Machines, Inc. in the Heights from 1940 until retirement.

She was preceded in death by her first husband, Bob McDougal, and then by her husband, O. L. Pritchett, owner of Home Plumbing.

She is survived by her daughter, Joyce McDougal Welch and husband, Leslie "Buddy" Welch; stepson, Joe Pritchett and wife, Irene; grandchildren, Douglas and Lisa Welch, David and Koren Welch, Daniel and Karen Welch, and Leslye Welch; six great-grandchildren several step grandchildren and step great grandchildren; one sister, Theora Brown of Grapeland; and many other relatives and friends whom she loved dearly.