JENNIE LEE PRUITT

On January 1, 2007, God sent one of his angels to Madisonville Hospital and called Mrs. Jennie Lee Pruitt home. Mrs. Pruitt was born to the parentage of the late Gaines and Tishie Murray Johnson on August 20, 1915 in Emory, Rains County. Mrs. Pruitt was one of seven siblings. Mrs. Pruitt received her formal education in Rains County, Emory, and graduated from Madam C.J. Walker Beauty School, Dallas. Mrs. Pruitt accepted Christ at an early age and served faithfully for many years at Mt. Zion Ash Community Baptist Church until her health failed. Mrs. Pruitt united in holy matrimony to the late John W. Pruitt, July 1, 1933.

Survivors include her three sons Leonard Pruitt, Larry Pruitt and Kenneth (Betty) Pruitt, all of Crockett; two daughters Vivian L. (Walter) Epting, Patricia (Conrad) Jones, of Victoria; nine grandchildren; three great-grandchildren; numerous nieces, nephews; other relatives and friends.

Preceded in death by her husband John W. Pruitt; son Charles E. Pruitt; stepson John W. Pruitt, Jr.
