

Pulley

Funeral services for Mable Pulley, 86, of Liberty, were conducted on Thursday, May 24, at 10:00 a.m. at Calvary Baptist Church in Moss Bluff, under the direction of Allison Funeral Service in Liberty, with the Rev. Chuck Bradford officiating. Interment was at Cooke Memorial Cemetery, Liberty. She was born March 2, 1924, the daughter of Lafayette Singleton and Lona Grice. She married James Henry "Jim Baby" Pulley on December 12, 1961 in Baytown. She lived in the Liberty-Moss Bluff area for forty-three years. She retired from the Southern Pacific Railroad. Mrs. Pulley was a member of Calvary Baptist Church. She spent many countless hours doing volunteer and charity work. Mable was a loving, generous lady, who will be missed by all who knew her. Mrs. Pulley passed away on Tuesday, May 22, 2007 at the Liberty-Dayton Community Hospital. Her father, Lafayette Singleton; mother, Lona Honea; step-father, Rev. T.H. Honea; brother, Bill Graham; sisters, Esther Matthews and Lessie Bryson; and nephews, John Bryson and J.R. Matthews, preceded her in death. Survivors include husband of 46 years, James Henry "Jim Baby" Pulley of Liberty; nieces, Ann Burk and Jean Nelson of Nacogdoches, Peggy Mize of Mount Vernon, and Beth Bryson, Dee Stelly and Suzie Ortego of Winnie; nephews, Jack Matthews of Rockwall, Jimmy Graham of Rusk, and Harry Bryson Jr. of Winnie; and numerous step-nieces and step-nephews; and other relatives and many friends. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to The Texas Elks Endowment Fund, 1963 FM 1586, Gonzales, Texas 78629. To view and sign the guest book, go to www.allisonfuneralservice.com. Allison Funeral Services, Liberty, was in charge of arrangements.