SHARON KAY RAMBY

Graveside service for Sharon Kay Ramby, 54, of Houston, Texas was held on Monday February 19, 2007 at Marquez Cemetery in Marquez, Texas at 3:00 PM with Rev. Marilyn Meeker-Williams officiating.

Sharon was born on Sunday November 30, 1952 in Shreveport, Louisiana to Harold Barton Ramby the late Esther Lois Ramby and was taken to be with Jesus on Thursday February 15, 2007.

She was a graduate of Houston Baptist University, with a Bachelors Degree in both Chemistry and Biology. After working as a Chemist and as a Quality Manager/Facilitator for many years in Crosby, Texas, and in Tulsa, Oklahoma, Sharon was excited about designing and making signs as the owner and operator of BannerlandTX.com. Sharon was a member of Bering Memorial United Methodist Church of Houston where she served on the Board of Trustees for several years, and shared her love of God with everyone. She enjoyed camping, playing tennis and golf, and music. Her newest hobby was serving as a foster home for an animal rescue group – she loved working with shelter dogs to give those animals a chance to have someone to love them.

Sharon was preceded in death by her mother, Esther Lois Ramby in 2005.

Survivors include her father, Harold Barton Ramby; brothers, Keith Ramby and Tom Ramby; niece and nephew, Lloyd Ramby, Jennifer Jordon and husband Jeremy; and many friends and her beloved dogs Rusty and Trap'er, E/Z the cat, and current foster puppy Basia.

Memorial gifts may be made to Bering Memorial United Methodist Church, Scout's Honor Animal Rescue, Marquez Cemetery, or to American Heart Association with the prayer that Heart Disease, as it specifically affects women will receive study in the future.
