

Roger Raynor

ONALASKA – Funeral services for Roger Raynor, 79, were held Tuesday, May 1, 2007, in the Cochran Funeral Home Chapel in Onalaska, with the Rev. Sam Steele officiating. Mr. Raynor died Saturday, April 28, in Memorial Health System on East Texas in Lufkin. He was born Aug. 23, 1927 in Jamaica, N.Y., the son of Ralph and Lillian Hunt Raynor, both of whom preceded him in death. Mr. Raynor was a New York state archery champion and held the state record for the largest Mako shark catch.

Survivors include his wife, Hilda Raynor of Livingston; sons and daughters-in-law, Mark and Cindy Andrews of Missouri City and Don and Maggie Andrews of Houston; daughters, Lisa and Stephanie Andrews of Houston; grandsons, Adam Rayburn of Houston, Shawn Andrews of Houston, Christopher Lash of Houston, Logan Andrews of Houston and Connor Andrews of Houston and granddaughters, Alison Andrews of St. Louis, Mo. and Misty Andrews of Houston.