

328

ACC
6/7/07

Geneva Ann Redden

GROVETON - Services for Geneva Ann Redden, 56, of Nacogdoches were held at 11 a.m. Saturday, June 2, 2007, in the Groveton Funeral Home with Bro. Calvin Kersh officiating.

Burial followed in New Church Cemetery.

Mrs. Redden died Wednesday, May 30, in Nacogdoches.

She was born July 24, 1950, in Cleveland and was employed as a deli clerk for Kroger. Mrs. Redden was a member of the Baptist faith.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Robert and Hellen Pauline Rhoues.

Survivors include her husband, Wayne Redden of Nacogdoches; two daughters, Paula K. Redden and Waine L. Redden, both of Nacogdoches; a step-daughter and her spouse, Jean and Jimmy Wright of Lufkin; a brother and his spouse, Robert and LaDonna

See Obit., pg. 3B

from page 2B

Rhoues of Decatur; two sisters and their spouses, Mary and Bill Aaron of Nacogdoches and Barbara and Wilburn Bunnell of Huntsville; sisters and brothers-in-law, Robbie and James Duff of Lufkin, Wanda and Thomas Cooper of Stigler, Okla., and Edgar West of Groveton; four grandchildren; and two great-grandchildren.

Groveton Funeral Home directed the arrangements.