

February, 27, 2008

Houston County Courier

DAVID WAYNE ROARK

Mr. David Wayne Roark, age 43 of Wells, passed away Thursday, January 31, 2008 in Wells. Mr. Roark was born August 18, 1964 in Jacksonville, Texas to Don and Helen Baker Roark. Mr. Roark lived in Alto most of his life before moving to Wells. Mr. Roark attended the Weches Pentecostal Church when he was younger. Mr. Roark liked hunting, fishing, working on cars and enjoyed working for his dad hauling cars with the wrecker. Survivors include his parents Don and Elizabeth Roark, of Kennard; grandmother Mary Roark, of Alto; brother Larry Roark, of Etoil; half-brother Paul Roark, of Kennard; step-brother Charles and wife Donna, of Lufkin; step-sister Debra Burran, of Kennard; uncles Lindall Roark and wife Brenda, of Houston, Glen Roark, of Alto and Wendall Baker, of Lufkin; two nieces; and one nephew.

Preceded in death by his mother Helen Baker Roark; grandfather and grandmother Baker; grandfather Charles Roark; and an aunt.

Graveside Services for Mr. David Wayne Roark were held Sunday, February 3, 2008 at 2:30 p.m. at the Old Palestine Cemetery with Brenda Roark officiating.

O.T. Allen & Son Funeral Home