

Trinity Standard
Oct 5, 2000

Weldon

Margaret Rodgers

TRINITY -- Services for Margaret Rodgers, 80, of Trinity were held at 10 a.m. Thursday, Sept. 28, 2000, in the Waller-Thornton Chapel with the Rev. Billy Parker officiating.

Burial followed in the Weldon Cemetery.

Mrs. Rodgers died Sept. 26 in Huntsville.

She was born Dec. 25, 1919 in Madison County and was a member of the Weldon Baptist Church.

She was preceded in death by two husbands, Dud Robinson and Bob Rodgers.

Survivors include a daughter and her husband, Bonnie and Roger Varieur of Trinity; a step-son, Benjie Rodgers of Beaumont; two sisters, Ada Goodrum of Trinity and Bobbie Sowell of Huntsville; two grandsons and their spouses, Dudley and Darlene Thornton of Batson and Duwayne and Robyn Thornton of Liberty; four great-grandchildren; Kim Johnson of Hardin, Matt Thornton of Batson, Katie Thornton of Batson and Kora Thornton of Liberty; one great-great-grandchild, Dakota Thornton; and four step-grandchildren, Roger, Debbie, Tonya and Tiffany Varieur.

Pallbearers included Bill Goodrum, Dudley Thornton, Johnny Sowell, Kim Kimmey, Duwayne Thornton and Lon Ed Sowell.

Waller-Thornton Funeral Home of Trinity handled the arrangements.