ROY D. ROLLO

Mr. Roy D. Rollo, age 71, of Weldon, passed away Jan. 9 in Crockett. He was born May 30, 1929. Roy Rollo, better known as Roy D. was born and raised in the Weldon area. As a young man, he went to Houston as an apprentice painter and later owned and operated his own painting company. This business proved quite successful which allowed him to retire at the age of 55 and move back to Weldon, about fifteen years ago, where he became the self-appointed mayor of Weldon. Roy was a very caring and giving person his whole life. He stated from the early age of sixteen taking care of his mother, Ethel and provided for her until her death. Throughout his life, this attitude of caring and giving has continued for other members of his family' and friends. He was a very honest and hard-working man. A unique individual, Roy never met a stranger, had a fantastic memory for dates and people, but was highly opinionated. If you wanted to know how Roy felt about a subject, all you had to do was ask, he would tell you anyway whether you liked it or not. These characteristics are what people loved about him the most which created friendship far and wide that will last for a life-

Survivors include wife, Willie Mae Rollo of Weldon; daughter, Tambrey Rollo of Houston; son, Roy W. Rollo of Apple Springs; granddaughter, Mrs. John (Brandi) Cimrhanzl and son Cole; grandson, Michael Rollo; granddaughter, Haley Granberry; granddaughter, Crystal Rollo; sister, Verna Jean O' Callahan of Alamo; brother, Chris "Butch" Rollo of Alvin; and numerous nieces and nephews. He is also survived by Mrs. Kent Belva Rollo of Huntsville.

Mr. Rollo is preceded in death by his father, Kent Rollo; and mother, Ethel Townsend Rollo; three brothers, Charles A., Stephen, and J. B. Rollo.

Pallbearers were Jimmy B. Rollo, Marty Hyde, Buddy Leggett, Sonny Rollo, Daniel · Stevenson, John Hinson, Joe Robinson, Randy Stevenson, and Michael Broxson.

Claybar • Waller-Ramsey
Funeral Home