

Trinity Standard
Oct 7, 2004

V-L 85-24

3-1F

Jenice Ann Ross

Jenice Ann Ross was born July 6, 1925, and died March 3, 2004. She is now at rest beside her husband, Cerf Ross, in the Werner Family Cemetery in Riverside.

Survivors include her sons, Richard Ross and Chip Ross; daughter-in-law, Tammy; granddaughter, Rachael; and sister, Lettie Burns. Other family members include Joe and Jan Werner, Joe Werner Jr., Gary and Patti Werner and Doug Werner.

Jenice Ann's mother was Madell Werner Levy of Trinity.

She was faithful at attending family reunions held at the site of the old steamboat town of Newport near Riverside. Newport was founded in the 1840s by Joe Werner, a steamboat captain and immigrant from Prussia.

During the reunions, the entire family would gather beside the Trinity River to remember old times and make new memories. They would perform, including a magic acts by Frank and Sam Werner, banjo performances by Sam Werner, saxophone performances by Werner Johnson, honky-tonk piano concerts by Lois Werner and sing-alongs by the entire family, include Lena Werner Johnson.

Jenice Ann loved her family photos including pictures of the Queen Theatre, Parker Hardware and Furniture Store run by Harold and Blanche Werner and the Trinity steam locomotive affectionately known as the "Woobley, Bobley."

She had a deep love for Trinity, Riverside and the old family tract at Newport. She also had a deep love for her family and friends who will miss her dearly.

This short tribute was requested by Richard Ross, her loving son.

Jenice Ann Ross