

HCC Oct 1, 2000

Corinth

170771

LOUISE VIOLA
CURRY RUSHING

Mrs. Louise Viola Curry Rushing, age 83, of San Antonio, formerly of Crockett, passed away Monday, Sept. 25 in the Baptist Medical Center in San Antonio. Mrs. Rushing was born Aug. 12, 1917 in Kennard and had lived in San Antonio for the past two years. She was a homemaker.

Survivors include daughters, Martha Johnson and husband, Jerry of San Antonio, and Mary Louise Martin and husband, Jerry of San Antonio, grandchildren Amy Johnson Lauderdale and husband, Roger of Plano, Stacey Elizabeth Johnson of San Antonio, Stephanie Martin Griffith and husband, Chris of Plano, Brian Martin of Plano and Margaret Martin of San Antonio, brother S.A. "Junior" Curry and wife, Dona Sue of Crockett, sisters, Grace Hayhurst and husband, Albert of Pasadena, Robbie Carrell and Pat Curry, both of Crockett, sister-in-law Vivian Curry of Crockett and numerous other brothers-in-law, sisters-in-law, nieces and nephews.

Mrs. Rushing was preceded in death by her husband, Ralph "Bill" Rushing, two brothers, Noble Curry and Carl Curry, and sister Marguerite Murray.

Funeral Services for Mrs. Rushing were held Thursday, Sept. 28 at 2 p.m. in the Callaway-Allee Memorial Chapel with the Rev. Frank Oswald and the Rev. Jim Tom Ainsworth officiating. Interment followed in the Corinth Cemetery.

Callaway-Allee Funeral Home