

Norma Jean Russell

TRINITY -- Graveside services for Norma Jean Russell, 70, were held Saturday, Nov. 15, 2003, at the Glendale Cemetery with the Rev. Kevin King officiating.

Mrs. Russell died Thursday, Nov. 13, with her family at her side.

She was born Jan. 14, 1933 in Trinity County, daughter of the late William and Alma Hill Clayton. Before her retirement, she worked for the Continental Oil Co. as a supervisor.

Mrs. Russell enjoyed hunting during deer season but her greatest joy was her children and grandchildren.

Survivors include three daughters, Lillian Ann Butler, Deborah G. Blair and Tricia J. Taylor; a son and daughter-in-law, Henry G. and Pam Russell; three sisters, Fannie Anderson, Linda McRae and Ann Presley; one brother, Eugene Clayton; 10 grandchildren, Christi, Brandon, Kyle, Katie, Chelsea, Tonya, Nicole, Tina, Sherry and Richard; four great-grandchildren, Alexis, Abigail, Kristopher and Ashlyn; and a number of other relatives.

Waller-Thornton Funeral Home of Trinity directed the arrangements.
