Ottie Sue Love Safford

TRINITY – Services for Ottie Sue Love Safford, 87, were held at 11 a.m. Monday, July 16, 2007, in the Groveton Church of Christ with Lee Brinkman and Neal Kemper officiating.

Burial followed in the Carmona Cemetery.

Mrs. Safford died Wednesday, July 11, in Lufkin.

She was born March 23, 1920, in Chillicothe and was employed as an interior designer for a number of years. She enjoyed fabricating her own designs for window treatments and was known as a good seamstress. Mrs. Safford also was known as a strong Christian woman who enjoyed serving in the local nursing home.

She was a member of the Church of Christ.

Mrs. Safford was preceded in death by her husband, Woodrow Wilson Safford, a daughter-in-law, Susan Safford; and a great-grandson, Dane Wilson Safford.

Survivors include two sons, Gary Wilson Safford and Kim Alan Safford; a brother, Bobby Lee Love; two grandsons and a spouse, Glen Wilson and Cynthia Safford and Todd William Safford; two great-grandsons, Wendell Wilson Safford and Colton Dane Safford; and a number of other relatives.

Waller-Thornton Funeral Home of Trinity directed the arrangements.
