

Trinity Standard
3-25-2004

Lula A. "Lu" Sanford

HOUSTON - Services for Lula

A. "Lu" Sanford, 83, of Houston were held 2:30 p.m. Tuesday, March 16, 2004, at the Chapel of the Angles in Forest Park Lawndale Cemetery in Houston.

Burial followed in Forrest Park Lawndale Cemetery.

Mrs. Sanford died Saturday, March 13.

Born Jan. 5, 1921 in Pennington, she was the daughter of Alfred G. and Winnie E. Lucas. Mrs. Sanford was a longtime resident of Houston and a member of the First United Methodist Church.

Her passion was teaching and working with elementary children. She taught school for 46 years, continuing until her recent hospitalization. She was a life member of the Texas PTA and received a Life Achievement Award from the National PTA. She also was a member of the Texas State Teachers Association.

Mrs. Sanford was preceded in death by her husband of 38 years, Alton Alvin Sanford.

Survivors include two daughters and their spouses, Linda and Mike Mehta of Houston and Martha and Harry Desai of Plano; two grandsons and their spouses, David and Angela Desai of Plano and Matt and Rebecca Desai of Bellevue, Wash.; and two great-grandchildren, Zachary and Brooke Desai of Plano.

Pallbearers were David Desai, Matt Desai, Harry Desai, Richard Rockenbaugh, Andy Carfield and Jamie Duran.

The family has asked that memorial contributions be made to the American Cancer Society.

Earthman Funeral Home of Houston directed the arrangements.