Graveside Rites To Be Held Today For Mrs. Sarles

Graveside services for Wanda Ramey Sarles of Houston will be held today (Thursday, November 4) at Muse Cemetery, SH 294 at FM-228, east of Slocum. The service will begin at 11:30 a.m. with Dr. Jack Shoultz officiating. Burial will follow under the direction of Bailey & Foster, Grapeland.

Wanda Ramey Sarles was born north of Grapeland on April 4, 1928, to Charles F. Ramey and Mary Lively Ramey. She died Tuesday, November 2, 1999, in Houston. Mrs. Sarles was reared in north Houston County and vicinity. She was a member of Grapeland High School's Class of '45. Mrs. Sarles obtained her BA from Sam Houston and her MA from the University of Houston, thereafter teaching in the Alief and Houston Independent School Systems.

For most of her married life, Mrs. Sarles was a homemaker, a devoted wife and mother. She was active in her children's school activities, church affairs and volunteer teaching.

Mrs. Sarles was a member of Gethsemane United Methodist Church, Houston, where memorial services will be held Saturday, November 6, at 11:00 a.m. She was baptized and joined Sunset Christian Church on FM 227, east of Grapeland, as a youth.

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by a younger sister, Patricia Ramey Broadway, who died years ago in Jacksonville.

She is survived by her husband, B. Dave Sarles, Jr. of Houston; two daughters, Sharon D. Sarles of Austin, Linda Sarles Cook of San Antonio; son-in-law, John M. Cook; three grandchildren; one great grandchild; two brothers, Billy Fred Ramey of Jacksonville and Leonel Ramey of Grapeland; a sister-in-law, Virginia L. Ramey of Grapeland; sisters, June Ramey Felts of Houston; nieces and nephews.

In lieu of flowers, donations to your favorite charity are suggested.
