

N.C.C. Sunday March 29, 1998

MARY CARRIE OLESON
SARVER

*Evergreen
Crockett*

Mary Carrie Oleson Sarver, age 81, of Crockett, passed away Wednesday, March 25, 1998 in Crockett. Mrs. Sarver was born Jan. 25, 1917 in Bell County to Beal Matchett and Mary Tom Rawls Oleson, she grew up in the heights of Houston. Moving to Baytown in 1933, she graduated from Robert E. Lee High School the following year. She married George L. Sarver on Oct. 22, 1934 in Liberty and they lived in Baytown where their sons were born. She was a charter member of the Wooster Baptist Church of Baytown, past president of the Baytown A&M Mothers Club, and an employee of State Farm Insurance Company in Baytown for many years. In 1971, she moved to their Houston County ranch to join her husband in retirement and for a time was an employee of State Farm in Crockett. She was a member of First Baptist Church, Crockett, where she was active in the WMU.

Survivors include her husband, George L. Sarver, Sr.; sons, George L. Sarver, Jr. and wife, Bettie of Crockett, William G. Sarver and wife, Mina of Dallas and Percilla; grandchildren, William Gerald Sarver, Jr. and wife, Patty of Plano, Brett L. Sarver and wife, Tracey of Houston, George L. Sarver, III and wife, Laura of Sunnyvale, Calif., Ronald W. Sarver and wife, Teri of Tyler, Kimberly M. Sarver of Baytown, Pamela J. Sarver Barrett and husband, Richard of Raleigh, N.C.; great-grandchildren, Caroline and Will Sarver of Plano, Stephen and David Sarver of Sunnyvale, Calif.; numerous nieces and nephews.

Funeral services for Mrs. Sarver were held Friday, March 27 at 3 p.m. in Waller-Ramsey Family Chapel with the Rev. E.P. Ramsey, Former pastor of First Baptist Church, Crockett officiating. Interment followed in Evergreen Memorial Park in Crockett.

Pallbearers were four grandsons and two nephews, William G. Sarver, Jr., George Sarver, III, Ronald Wayne Sarver, Brett Lynn Sarver, nephew Clyde Lee Oleson, Jr., and Donald E. Steen.

Waller-Ramsey Funeral Home