

121

Trinity Standard
7-6-2006

33578

Wife of Lydia Scarborough

KERRVILLE - Services for Wayne Lydia Scarborough, 93, wife of 11, a.m. Thursday, June 29, 2006, at the First Assembly of God Church in Kerrville.

She died Monday, June 26.

Born March 7, 1912, in White City, she was the daughter of Sam Nelson Scarborough and Nancy Jane Dean Scarborough. She grew up in the Saron community of Trinity County and attended the Sarglen School, which was located midway between the Saron and Glendale communities.

She was ordained as a minister and loved telling people about Jesus.

She was preceded in death by her parents; a daughter, Meta Darlene Whitney; a brother, Sammy Scarborough; and a nephew, Tucker Nelson Scarborough.

Survivors include a brother and sister-in-law, Forrest and Lirue Scarborough of Kingland; a niece, Arnette Hanzik of East Bernard; and a nephew, Forrest Scarborough Jr. of Kingland.

Friends and family are invited to send condolences at www.grimesfuneralchapel.com by selecting the "Send Condolences" link.

Grimes Funeral Chapel of Kerrville directed the arrangements.