Joy Campbell Schultz

Joy Schultz passed away suddenly on Wednesday, April 30, 2003 at M.D. Anderson Hospital, Houston, TX.

She was born March 5, 1937, in Columbus, TX to N.J. and Hattie Campbell who preceded her in death. Also, her older son, Johnny predeceased her.

She is survived by her beloved husband of 37 years, Bernard, daughters, Robin and Misty, son Joe and his fiancée Katherine Alvarado, granddaughter, Savannah, brother Gail Campbell and sister-in-law Julene. Her loving lab, Roscoe will continue to pine over her absence for years to come.

The pride of Joy's life were her children and they each considered her the best mother any child could ask for. She tirelessly participated in all their activities throughout their early years, whether it was shuttling them to dance recitals or baseball games, she was always a strong, ever-present force in their lives.

After the kids departed for college, she decided it was time to return to academia so that she could resume teaching at the college level. She completed her master degree in English Literature from the University of Houston Clear Lake and began teaching English at Wharton County Jr. College.

Joy loved her students and faculty. And it was an understatement to say how much all of them loved her. She combined her creative and technological skills in her teaching methods.

A service celebrating her life was held at 2 p.m., Tuesday, May 6 at the Chapel at Levy Funeral Home.

In lieu of flowers, the family requested donations be made to Wharton County Jr. College English Department at 911 Boling Highway, Wharton, Texas 77488.
