

December 9, 2007

Polk Co. Enterprise

Kathryn Melton Scurry

KEMP -- Kathryn Melton of Scurry died on Nov. 29, 2007 in Kaufman.

She was born on Sept. 8, 1927 to the late R.C. and Alma Thomas Lehew Sr. in Dallas.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Everett L. Melton; granddaughter, Jana Gibbins; brothers, R.C. Lehew Jr., Loyd W. Lehew and Gerald W. Lehew; sister, Edna Merle Lehew and Yvonne Lehew and stepmother, Beverly Lehew.

She is survived by her children, Sandra Grumbling and husband Ernest of Scurry and son, Wade Melton and wife Joyce of Kaufman; nine grandchildren; 30 great-grandchildren and nine great-great-grandchildren; brothers, Wayne Lehew and wife Margie of New Orleans, La., Lynn Best Bohannon of Livingston, Loretta Johnson of Baytown, Marlene Milligan and husband Pat of Edna and Robbie Whitley and husband Don of Edna; stepsisters, Glenda Adams and Darla Backus and husband Dennis; stepbrother, Stoke Reader; half-brother Gerry Lehew and half-sisters, Terri Price and husband Don of Baytown, Connie Fort and husband Larry and numerous other relatives and a host of friends.

Services were held Saturday, Dec. 1, in the Anderson-Clayton Bros. Funeral Home Chapel. Interment followed in Kemp Cemetery.

Guest Registry may be signed at www.andersonclaytonbros.com.