

Big Thicket
December 23, 2007

Seaberg

Funeral services for Juanita Addington Seaberg, 93, of Dayton, were held at 10:00 a.m. Saturday, November 17, 2007, at the First United Methodist Church with the Rev. Jon Stouffer officiating. Interment followed in Magnolia Park Cemetery, under the direction of Pace-Stancil Funeral Home, Dayton.

She was born August 12, 1914 in Mineral Wells, the daughter of Curtis B. and Lela Bertha Rackley Addington.

Mrs. Seaberg was a lifelong resident of Dayton, a member of the First United Methodist Church of Dayton, where she taught Sunday School, led Methodist Youth Fellowship and was a charter member of the Mary Martha Sunday School Class. She was also a member of Stitch and Chatter Sewing Club, Woman's Club, and Dayton Art League, serving in all capacities of these clubs.

She passed away on November 14, 2007 in Liberty. Her parents; husband of 68 years, Roy Seaberg, Sr. and great-granddaughter, Clara Seaberg Jabbour, preceded her in death. Survivors include her three sons and their families, Roy A. Seaberg Jr. and wife, Ruth, of Huffman, Curtis A. Seaberg and Dr. K. Robert Seaberg and wife, Susan, all of Dayton; eight grandchildren, Sharon Nabhan and husband, Mike, of Austin, Dr. Elizabeth Jabbour and husband, Salim, of Dallas, Dr. Karen Seaberg of Dallas, Roy Seaberg III of Huffman, Janet Seaberg of Austin, Allen Seaberg of Dayton, Stacy Seaberg Haselhorst and husband, Todd, of Houston, Shelly Hensley, Sydney Nabhan and Rachal Nabhan; and extra special friend, Dollie Stone.

For those who desire, memorial contributions may be made to the First United Methodist Church of Dayton, or the charity of your choice.