

Myrtle Springs
Arapeland
Messenger

Jan 6, 2000

Services Held For Doris Ann Seckler

Funeral services for Doris Ann Seckler, age 66, of Elkhart were held Tuesday, January 4, at Bailey & Foster Chapel, Palestine, with Rev. Willie Reagan and Rev. Dennis Morgan officiating. Burial followed in Myrtle Springs Cemetery under the direction of Bailey & Foster, Palestine.

Pallbearers were Clyde Shelton, Scott Sherman, Ronnie Steadman, Ryan Steadman, Gary Wynne, and Jim Rowe. Honorary pallbearers were Steve Clark, Joe Danner, D. A. Pierson, L. B. Pierson, Carl Curry, Gary Wynne Jr., Simmie Rush and Wayne Rush.

Mrs. Seckler died Friday, December 31, 1999, at M. D. Anderson Hospital in Houston. She was born June 28, 1933, in Anderson County to Clarence and Helen Steadman Wynne. Mrs. Seckler was a member of the Tabernacle Baptist Church, and worked as a supervisor for the Input/Output Inc. Mrs. Seckler lived in Houston for 42 years and moved back to Elkhart in 1994.

In addition to her parents, Mrs. Seckler was preceded in death by two sons, Jimmy Carroll Seckler and Michael Eugene

Seckler, and a great-granddaughter, Morgan Renee Greenwood.

She is survived by her husband, Joe Seckler, of Elkhart; a daughter, Teresa Peel of Houston; a daughter-in-law, Thelma Sherman of Lufkin; a sister, Helen Clark of Houston; a granddaughter, Tammy Greenwood and husband, Ricky of Huntington; and two great grandchildren, Mallorie and Taylor Greenwood of Huntington.