

Honored

RUBY NELL SHERIDAN

Mrs. Ruby Nell Sheridan, age 87 of Louisville, Colorado, formerly of San Angelo, passed away Monday, January 19, 2004 in the Balfour Cherrywood Village in Louisville, Colorado. Mrs. Sheridan was born October 12, 1916 in Spring, and had been living in Louisville, Colorado since February 1993, previously living in San Angelo, New Mexico and Utah. Mrs. Sheridan was a graduate of Sam Houston State Teachers College in Huntsville with a degree in Home Economics. Mrs. Sheridan married John DuPuy "Jack" Sheridan on August 31, 1939 in Palestine. Mrs. Sheridan was a member of the First Christian Church and also a member of the Newcomers Club in San Angelo. Mrs. Sheridan was a retired teacher and taught in High School and Elementary Schools. "She was a woman of independence, compassion, and conviction who loved her family and who inspired truth and integrity in her friends and family."

Survivors include her daughter Claire Sheridan, of Boulder, Colo.; grandchildren Shellee Sheridan Burton, of Garland, Daniel Wade Proffitt, of Golden, Colo., Jeremy John Sheridan, of Franklin, Tenn., Monica Claire Proffitt, of Seattle, Wash.

Preceded in death by her husband Jack Sheridan in 1993; son John Sheridan in 1976; one brother; and two sisters.

Graveside services for Mrs. Ruby Nell were held Saturday, January 31, at 2:00 p.m. in the Glenwood Cemetery. Interment followed.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to Hospice Care of Boulder and Broomfield Counties, 2394 Trailridge Drive East, Suite A, Lafayette, Colorado 80026-3168.

Callaway-Allee Funeral Home