

Weldon Lee Sherwood

TRINITY -- Weldon Lee Sherwood, 76, of Trinity died Friday, June 7, 2002, at his residence in the Trinity Plantation subdivision.

A private funeral service was held with members of the immediate family in attendance.

Mr. Sherwood was born Sept. 4, 1925, and was raised in Cairo, Mo. He served as a B-17 bomber gunner with the U.S. Army Air Corps during World War II.

Following the war, he went to work for Southwestern Bell Corp. as a switchman and retired in 1983 after more than 38 years of service.

Upon his retirement, Mr. Sherwood moved to Trinity. He was known as an avid fisherman who loved Lake Livingston and who would go out everyday to test his skills and luck. He also was known to tinker with a variety of things and could be found outside on almost any day.

Survivors include his wife of 42 years, Diane Sherwood; a daughter and son-in-law, Susan and Lewis Letter; a sister and brother-in-law, Imogene and Cecil Robuck; and two granddaughters, Sarah and Hannah.

The family has asked that memorial contributions be made to The Hospice, P.O. Box 6548, Huntsville, Texas 77342-6548.

Waller-Thurston Funeral Home of Trinity directed the arrangements.
