

H.C.C. Thursday - January 27, 2005

CHARLIE MAE SIMMONS

Mrs. Charlie Mae Simmons, age 61, passed away December 25, 2004. Mrs. Simmons was born August 11, 1943 in Groveton to the parentage of the late Charlie Rhodes and Jaylean Lockhart Jones.

Mrs. Simmons accepted Christ at an early age and became a member of Baldwin Chapel Baptist Church. Mrs. Simmons was employed by Houston Independent School District until she moved to Ft. Worth.

Survivors include her husband James W. Simmons, of Groveton; daughter Angela Houston (Robert), of Ft. Worth; grandson James R. Simmons, of Ft. Worth; granddaughter Jessica Simmons, of Ft. Worth; mother Jaylean Lockhart Jones, of Groveton; sister Thelma L. Webster, of Houston; brothers Willie H. Smith (Claudette), of Houston and Roosevelt Smith, of Apple Springs; special niece Zelma Jefferson, of Houston; three special cousins Brenda Simmons, Angela McKelvy, of Lufkin and Alice Smith, of Groveton; one thoughtful great-nephew Reginald "Reggie" Jackson; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Preceded in death by her father Charlie Rhodes.

Funeral services for Mrs. Charlie Mae Simmons were held Thursday, December 30, 2004 at 12:00 p.m. at Balwin Chapel Baptist Church in Groveton with Rev. David Horace and Rev. Curtis Hester officiating. Interment followed in the Parkers Ridge Cemetery in Groveton.

Active Pallbearers were Dannie Webster, Reginald Jackson, Robert Smith, Reginald Smith, Bryan Henderson, James Smith and Cioffi Ross (Binky).

Honorary Pallbearers were Willie H. Smith, C.W. Simmons, Billy R. Smith, Roosevelt Smith, Charlie R. Smith, Gussie Smith and John Calvin Smith.

Barkley Mortuary