

Mildred Ima Rich Lovell Skains

TRINITY -- Services for Mildred Ima Rich Lovell Skains, 70, of Trinity were held at 2 p.m. Thursday, June 6, 2002, at the Lovelady Assembly of God Church with the Rev. D.R. McNaughton officiating.

Burial followed in the Carlisle Cemetery.

Mrs. Skains was born Aug. 5, 1931, in Houston County and worked in the medical field for the Grapeland Nursing Home. She also was employed as a nursing assistant at the Trinity hospital. She also was employed for a short time as a waitress.

She was a member of the Lovelady Assembly of God Church, and was known as a loving wife, mother, grandmother and sister to her family.

Mrs. Skains was preceded in death by her parents, Will and Edna Rich; five brothers and sisters, Joe

Ed, Dewell, William David Jr.,
Hallmark and Marie
Hoppers.

Survivors include her husband of 27 years, Bobby Joe Skains; two daughters and a son-in-law, Linda and Gene Greer and Rhonda Rowe; a son and daughter-in-law, Randy and Debbie Lovell; a stepson, Robert Lynn Williams; three sisters and a brother-in-law, Nancy and Ken Milstead, Nona Carver and Glenda Mitchell; seven grandchildren, Kimberly Harding, Sheila Lovell, Jason Lovell, Bryan Parish, Sandy Parish, Rachel Lovell and Justin Rowe; a step-granddaughter, Karen Risler; five great-grandchildren, Tyler, Joshua, Laci, Darrin and Lindsey; a number of nieces and nephews; and close friends Gordon and Nancy Parrish.

Waller-Thomson Funeral Home of Trinity directed the arrangements.