

David T.C. Smith

TRINITY -- David T.C. Smith, 66, of Jupiter, Fla., died Sunday, Oct. 26, 2003, in the Hospice of Palm Beach County in Florida.

Mr. Smith was born and reared in Houston, son of the late David and Bernice Thomas Smith. He resided in The Bahamas before moving to Jupiter, Fla., 18 years ago.

Mr. Smith was employed as a human resource manager and specialized in the execution of General Electric Lockheed Martin government contracts. He was an avid golfer and a member of the North Palm Beach Country Club.

Survivors include his wife of 17 years, Lorraine H. Smith; four children, Scott Smith, Deborah Samson, John Barnett and Debra Leonard; a sister, Sally Brooke Palmer of Trinity; and seven grandchildren, Sean, Justin, Timothy, Bobby, Cori, Stephanie and Stepahnie B.

In keeping with his unselfish nature during his life, Mr. Smith donated his remains to the University of Miami Anatomical Board for medical research.

In lieu of flowers, contributions in memory of David T.C. Smith may be made to the Hospice of Palm Beach County, 5300 East Avenue, West Palm Beach, FL 33407.

William N. Howard Funeral Home of North Palm Beach, Fla., directed the arrangements.
