

Obituaries

Campbell officiating.

Mr. Smith died Wednesday, Dec. 5.

He was born Nov. 8, 1920, the son of Burette and Janie Mae Smith in Camden. He served in the U.S. Army during World War II. He met his wife, Naomi Campbell at the Glendale Congregational Methodist Church.

Mr. Smith was preceded in death by his parents and a son, James David Smith.

Survivors include his wife of 61 years, Naomi Smith of Lorena; a son, Donnie Smith of Baytown; a daughter and son-in-law, Brenda and Tom Mattern of Hewitt; a brother and sister-in-law, Leon and Bobbie Potts of Baytown; three sister and two brothers-in-law, Irene Brent of Pasadena, Ruby and Allen Sheppard of Pasadena and Eva Mae and Lowell Hayes of Houston; seven grandchildren and their spouses, Connie and Martin Silva of Webster, Duane and D'Laine Smith of Baytown, Chad Smith of Shreveport, La., Jim Mattern of Hewitt, Greg Mattern of Hewitt, Jameson Mattern of Hewitt and Donnie Smith Jr. of Baytown; three great-grandchildren, Corey Starrett and Chase Kesterson, both of Webster, and Skye Smith of Baytown; nine nieces and nephews; and 12 great-nieces and great-nephews.

The family has asked that memorial contributions be made to the Glendale Congregational Methodist Church, Rt. 2, Box 4514, Trinity, Texas 74862.

Heritage Memorial Funeral Home and Trinity Funeral Home directed the arrangements.

James "Jack" Smith

TRINITY -- Graveside services for James "Jack" Smith, 81, of Lorena were held at 2 p.m. Friday, Dec. 7, 2001, in the Glendale Cemetery with the Rev. Barbara