

Lottie Lee Smith

HOUSTON -- Services for Lottie Lee Smith, 78, of Trinity and formerly of Houston were held at 3 p.m. Wednesday, Jan. 14, 2004, in the Chapel of Earthman Resthaven Funeral Home in Houston.

Burial followed in the Earthman Resthaven Cemetery.

Mrs. Smith died at sunrise on Sunday, Jan. 11.

She was born Aug. 20, 1925, in Houston and attended Reagan High School. She was a member of St. Stephens Episcopal Church of Huntsville.

Mrs. Smith retired in January 2003 from Goebel North America of Germany following 21 years of service. She was known as a devoted member of the Republican Party and was a supporter of President George W. Bush.

Mrs. Smith was preceded in death by her husband, Louis Lum Smith; her parents, Charles and Lottie Kluna; a son, James Lynn Smith Sr.; two brothers, Huland Womack and Charles Kluna Jr.; and two sisters, Daisy Williams and Lois Farrill.

Survivors include a daughter, Sandra L. Gates; two sons, Louis L. Smith III and his wife, Judy, and Gary Lee Smith Sr., and his wife, Teena; a daughter-in-law, Patty Smith; three sisters and their spouses, Jerry and Jon Hof, Vivian Willis and Charlene and Al Sikorski; two brothers-in-law, Glenn Smith and his wife, Phyllis, and Cliff Williams; two sisters-in-law, Eula Mae Womack and Billie Jo Kluna; 15 grandchildren; 16 great-grandchildren; one great-grandchild on the way; number of nieces and nephews; and a number of life-long friends, Lillie Belle Vogler, Paula Brady, Billie Watson and G.W. Smith.

Pallbearers will be James Smith Jr., Freddy Smith, Justin Gates, Josh Gates, Gary Lee Smith Jr. and Tad Traylor.

Honorary pallbearers were Harvey Gates, Robert Noonan, Kevin Traylor and Darren Lubbock.

In lieu of flowers the family has asked that donations be made to the Smith Family Cemetery, P.O. Box 1759, Trinity, Texas 75862 in memory of Louis and Lottie Smith, Founders.

Earthman Resthaven Funeral Home of Houston directed the arrangements.