

Trinity Standard

June 1, 2000

John Randall Stokley

TRINITY -- Services for John Randall Stokley, 44, of Huntsville were held at 2:30 p.m. Sunday, May 28, 2000 in the Dorcas Willis Memorial Baptist Church in Trinity with the Rev. Leroy Brown officiating.

Burial followed in Glendale Cemetery.

Mr. Stokley died Thursday, May 25, in Huntsville.

Born Feb. 9, 1956 in Trinity, he was a graduate of Trinity High School and was a member of the Baptist church. He was a rancher and co-owner of Madison County Live Stock Auction Sales.

Survivors include a daughter, Jessica Stokley of Livingston; his mother, Gladys Stokley of Trinity; a sister and brother-in-law, Jo Ann and Billy Hogg of Livingston; an aunt, Betty Anderson of Trinity; two grandchildren; special companion Clara Katherine Price and her son; and a number of other relatives.

Pallbearers included Ray Goodrum, David Coleman, Roy Barker, Bill Conrad, Marty Navarro, and Tony Blakely.

Honorary pallbearers were Tommy Coleman, John Jones, Mike Price, Billy Fuchs and Dolan Waller.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to the Dorcas Willis Memorial Baptist Church.

Waller-Thornton Funeral Home of Trinity directed the arrangements.