

FAYE YOUNG STOWE

Mrs. Faye Young Stowe, age 79, of Crockett, passed away Monday Feb. 5, 2001 in Houston. She was born Aug. 19, 1921 in Cherokee County.

Mrs. Stowe touched many lives. She was a mother, grandmother, sister, aunt, and friend. Her loss leaves an empty and unfillable void in the lives of her loved ones. Her family was her priority in this life. She was love, comfort, and security to her children and grandchildren. She was an active part in their lives - always there with a smile and support that only she could give. We knew how much we meant to her and how much she loved each of us. She was independent and full of life enjoying people and staying busy. She has been reunited with many loved ones as we will one day be reunited with her. Until then she will live on in each of our hearts until she greets us once again with a smile and hug at heaven's gate.

Survivors include sons, George V. Young Jr. and wife, Laverne of Crockett, and Tobey E. Young of Dallas; brothers, Tommie Hendrick and wife, Iris of Austin, John Harold Hendrick and wife, Charlene of Crockett, and Avon Ray Hendrick and wife, Lona of Mississippi; grandchildren, Susan Lawrence and husband, Johnny of Crockett, Trey Young of Crockett, Ashlie Meghan Young, and Wesley Taylor Young of Dallas; four great-grandchildren; and numerous other relatives and friends survive.

Funeral services for Mrs. Stowe were held Thursday, Feb. 8, 2001 at Calvary Baptist Church in Crockett with the Rev. Lynn Stephens and the Rev. David Valentine officiating. Interment followed in the Evergreen Memorial Park.

Pallbearers were Wesley Taylor Young, Trey Young, Steve Hendrick, David Stern, Mark Hendrick, James Ellis Hendrick, Brad Lawrence, and Johnny Lawrence.

Claybar • Waller-Ramsey
Funeral Home

Evergreen
Crockett