

Trinity Standard
February 24, 2008

Charles Raymond Stratton

TRINITY – Graveside services for Charles Raymond Stratton, 73, were held at 1 p.m. Saturday, Feb. 16, 2008, in the Cedar Grove Cemetery in Trinity with the Rev. Jason Burden officiating.

Mr. Stratton died Tuesday, Feb. 12, in Houston.

He was born Oct. 16, 1934, in Trinity and served in the U.S. Army. He was the owner-operator of Stratton Home Moving Co. and was known as the man who could move a house when no one else would.

Survivors include two sons and their spouses, Daniel and Janie Stratton and David and Janie Stratton; three daughters, Kathryn Stratton Spencer, Karen Stratton Jordan and Patricia Wilson; 11 grandchildren, Robert Stratton and Pamela, Michael Scott Spencer, Kimberly Nicole Spencer, Lisa Marie Spencer, Jessica Jordan, Amanda Breton and her husband Ryan, John Joseph Hernandez, Shawna Newsom and her husband Cedric Living, Autumn Christiansen and her husband Alex, Miles Ware and Justin Allen and his wife Bonnie; and 12 great-grandchildren, Chloe Jordan, Raquel Breton, Kaylea Breton, Kylea Breton, Deion Living, Katie Taylor, Hannah Newsom, Erica Waggoner, Kyle Ware, Kevin Ware, Emmah Christiansen and Zowy Allen. Waller-Thornton Funeral Home directed the arrangements.