Susan Scott Sturgeon, 57, of Trinity were held Tuesday, July 6, 2004, in the Chapel of Sam Houston Memorial Funeral Home in Huntsville with the Rev. Glen Schoenberg and the Rev. Ellen Willett officiating.

Burial followed in Chalk Cemetery in Trinity.

Mrs. Sturgeon died Saturday, July 4, at her Trinity residence.

She was born Oct. 20, 1946, the daughter of Eugene Milton and Mary Beth (Williamson) Scott in Huntsville.

She graduated from Burton High School in 1965 and attended Blinn College in Brenham. She transferred to Sam Houston State University where she was awarded a Bachelor of Arts degree in education in 1968. She earned a Masters of Education from SHSU in 1977 and a second master's degree from Texas Women's University in Dallas in 1979.

In 1972 she met and married Sgt. Chuck Sturgeon and resided in Korea until 1974. The couple then moved to Fort Hood in Killeen.

Upon her return to Texas, Mrs. Sturgeon taught special education in Richards from 1975-76. When the couple moved to Waxahachie in 1976, she served as a diagnostician for the Waxahachie Independent School District from 1976-2000.

In addition, Mrs. Sturgeon served as a professor at Navarro College in Corsicana from 1988 to 1998.

She moved to Trinity in 2000 and worked for the Region VI Eduation Service Center in Huntsville until 2002 and then for the Bayes Education Center from 2002 until her death.

She was active in her community, serving as a member of the Huntsville Memorial Hospital Auxiliary and as president of the Chalk Cemetery Association.

Mrs. Sturgeon was preceded in death by her husband in 1990 and by her father in 1994.

Survivors include her mother, Mary Beth Scott of Trinity; a daughter, Shane Williford of Trinity; two step-daughters, Shari Wolfe of Midlothian and Dawn Spears of Lexington, Ky.; two sisters and their spouses, Janet and Tom Whitener of Dallas and Ginger and Dane Houston of Brenham; seven grandchildren, Brie Spears of Lexington, Ky., Russell Tyler and Kandace Wolfe, both of Midlothian, Haley Burk, Allan Williford and Dylan Williford, all of Trinity; three nieces, Kori Whitener of College Station, Keli St. Peter of Austin and Ashley Johse of Midlothian; a nephew, Scott Wallace of Huntsville; and a great-niece, Alexis Johse of Midlothian.

The family has asked that memorial contributions be made to the Chalk Cemetery Association, Rt. 4, Box 3725, Trinity, Texas 75862 or Susan's Supplies, a foundation that provides school supplies for needy children at P.O. Box 2630, Trinity, Texas 75862.

Sam Houston Memorial Funeral Home of Huntsville directed the arrangements.
