TRINITY - Edward Jacob "Jack"
Szymoniak, 72, of Trinity died Dec.
13, 2006 in Trinity.
No services are scheduled at this time.

Born Aug. 24, 1934, in Pittsburgh, Penn., he was the son of the late John Robert and Tekla Kopela Szymoniak. He served in the U.S. Coast Guard.

He was a former resident of Dickenson, where he was employed by several Dodge automobile dealerships as an auto mechanic. He retired after more than 25 years and moved to Trinity in 1999.

Survivors include his best friend and wife of 27 years, Emma Gene Szymoniak; a daughter and her spouse, Doris Jean and Jim Lee; four step-children and their spouses, Walter and Laurie Prewitt, Sonya and John Burnett, Terry and Jacque Prewitt and Donald and Martha Prewitt; a brother and his spouse, Chester and Carol Szymoniak; two grandchildren, James Lee and Shawn Lee; and a number of other relatives and friends.

In lieu of flowers, the family has asked that memorial contributions be made to the Bay Area SPCA.

Waller-Thornton Funeral Home of Trinity directed the arrangements.
