

James Larry Tate

TRINITY -- Services for James Larry Tate, 51, were held Sunday, Sept. 29, 2002 in the Calvary Baptist Church of Trinity with the Rev. Larry Bewley officiating.

Burial followed in the Magnolia Cemetery.

Mr. Tate died Thursday, Sept. 26, in Huntsville.

Born April 7, 1951, in Trinity, he was the second of twin sons born to James Still and Alta Tate. He resided in Trinity all of his life and helped take care of his mother for many years. His hobby was to tinker with citizens' band radios and was widely know for his knowledge and the assistance he provided to those with radio problems.

He was preceded in death by his father and a half-brother, Jay Tate.

Survivors include his mother; his twin brother and sister-in-law, James Terry and Tammy Tate; an uncle and aunt, William and Ola Owens; a nephew, Michael Tate; and numerous cousins and special friends.

Waller-Thornton Funeral Home of Trinity directed the arrangements.
